

Suissele is a start-up based in the technology parc of Yverdon-les-Bains, Y-Parc. The innovative products supporting beauty via several lines are produced in their white room in Yverdon and sold to medical doctors and distributors worldwide.

Join a small international team to get a real start-up experience with several innovative projects on-going and to come. In order to enjoy the challenge you must be flexible, independent, have a strong "can do" attitude and capable of adapting yourself to an international environment. We now offer the position of :

Regulatory Affairs Specialist

Medical Device Class III (fillers, mesotherapy)

50-60% to be discussed

Your responsibilities will be :

- Interprets regulatory requirements and quality standards
- Author and/or review documentation
- Manage global and regional submissions
- Negotiate related costs
- Provide leadership on regulatory interactions and preparation of meetings with regulatory agencies
- Actively participate in Regulatory Affairs and Quality building and improving
- Assist sales team with registration process of class III (filler) device
- Assist during regulatory agency inspections.

Your Profile :

- Minimum 5 years' experience in Regulatory Affairs Class III
- Experience in a start-up with an international activity
- Experience in implementable devices, aesthetic medicine, fillers and/or mesotherapy
- Competent in MS Office, messaging, web-conferencing systems.
- Experience of working in a dynamic, fast-paced environment within an international environment.
- Ability to work under pressure and to deadlines
- A proactive self-starter, able to work independently and use their initiative.
- A team player who works well across different groups of experts and is able to coordinate and communicate requirements across the teams.
- Strong team worker able to work alongside a multi-cultural group.
- Excellent written and oral skills of English

We offer :

An exciting position in a small international Start-Up. The possibility to participate to the growth of the company. Contacts worldwide and challenging tasks.

Please send your complete applications (CV, letter, certificates) via email only to our outsourced HR services at job@7act.ch